Ship: HINEMOA 1946-1967

Details

Number of Images: 7

Particulars of Ship

Builder: Vickers-Armstrong
Where Built: Barrow in Furness
Date Built: 1946
Tonnage: 6911
Number of passengers: 740
Propulsion: Twin screw turbo electric, Bow rudder
Owners & Previous Names: 1946-1967 USSCo
                          1967-1971 Used a floated power station at Bell Bay, Tasmania and Dampier, Western Australia
                          1971 Scrapped at Hong Kong

Additional Notes: One of the first passenger ships built in Britain after the conclusion of hostilities. Built to replace the ageing WAHINE on the Wellington Lyttelton ferry service. Remained in service until roll on roll off ships made her redundant. Sold to Tasmanian Electric Commission and was used as a floating power station at Bell Bay, Tasmania and in 1969 for similar purposes at Dampier, West Australia.

Connections

Company: Union Steam Ship Company